a month ago They entertain no doubt of their ability to win the presidential con-test despite the unmistakable slipping of their candidate and a market Republican propaganda designed to create widespread prejudice against the Wilson administration generally and Cox's championship of the league

The latter issue has become the ne outstanding and almost sole contention between the two parties. The Republican thoroughly satisfied with the result groups against the Democratic party for grievances real and imaginary, have been considerably worried by the manifest approval indicated by voters in the Eastern part of the country to whom Governor Cox has appealed. They do not deny that Ahe movement away from their own can-didate evidences the readiness of the to change their original opinions regarding it.

Whether this movement has ap-proximated the volume claimed by of the league council at its meeting in the Democratic managers is problematical. Surface conditions and close scrutiny of conditions and figures prepared by the managers of the two parties do not justify the Damocratic claim that it will be sufficiently Harding secured early in the cam-

[By Associated Press.] CINCINNATI, OHIO, Oct. Special pleas for election of sena-torial candidates favoring the league of nations were made by Governor Cox today, in a tri-State four touching West Virginia and Kentucky and closing tonight with an address here, where he began his career as a newspaper reporter twenty-five years ago.

The Democratic presidential candidate, reiterating he would construct his election—in which he, expressed utmost confidence—as a "positive mandate" for American entrance into the league, asked support for Democratic candidates here in Ohio and also in Kentucky, who he said, stood "four square" upon the league "Don't tie my hands by electing a hostile Senator," he urged, relterating statements made in his forma announcement yesterday, that he believed he would "reach an agreement the Senate regarding the league." "I have found that America is no so much cor rned in the words we use in keeping our pledge," said the Governor, "as it is in that the mean-ing be clear and that the only possible step now available be taken to prevent future wars." Governor Cox also continued his attack upon Senator Harding, as a "conspirator" against the league by virtue of the Senator's signature to the "round robin."

Must Now Upset Conspiracy. "I think you will agree," said the Governor, "that a conspiracy was formed in the Senate to strangle the league of nations to death. Now we are asked to upset the conspiracy and the senatorial crowd proposes. as the official upsetter, a member of the conspirators himself. When case is tried in court, the man under and the American people, in their desire to overturn this base conspiracy, are not going to designate one of the conspirators himself to
